DOCK THAMES INJURED

Dock Thames was painfully injured at the Dossy Trailer plant Wednesday morning. It is reported that he was sitting on the floor welding when a heavy steel side rail of a trailer which was leaning against the wall fell on him. He was rushed to Enterprise hospital where it was found he suffered a broken leg and a deep gash on his jaw.

DR. BRASWELL IMPROVES

Dr. W. C. Braswell, who has been confined to his home for several weeks, is reported to be somewhat improved. In a recent letter to the editor, he stated that he was able to walk with the aid of a cane and that he was able to read the newspaper. He also stated that he was able to write and that he was able to talk to his friends.

RED CROSS MEETING

The annual meeting of the West Coffee County Chapter of the American Red Cross was held in the Red Cross office at 7 o'clock the evening of Oct. 22. The meeting was attended by a large number of people. The chapter reported that it had collected a large amount of money and that it was able to provide a large amount of relief to the people in need.

SIDEWALK GOING IN

The city is building a sidewalk along the W. I. English & Son corner to the Emergency Aid Funded "Bingo" corner. The sidewalk is being built by the city and is expected to be completed in a few days. The sidewalk will be a great help to the people who are walking to the corner.

CARS COLLIDE ON BRIDGE

Cars driven by Albert Chapman and Roy T. Johnson were involved in a collision on the bridge over the river. The cars were traveling in opposite directions and the collision resulted in the cars being damaged. The drivers were not injured.

DR. E. M. WARR ATTENDS OPTOMETRISTS SESSION

Dr. E. M. Warr attended the annual session of the Alabama Optometric Association at the hotel in Montgomery. The session was held from October 20 to 22. Dr. Warr was one of the speakers at the session and he gave a paper on the subject of "The Role of the Optometrist in the Community."

MIKE MADDUX RECOVERING

Luther Vaughan, Mrs. R. L. Cooper and Mr. & Mrs. C. B. McDowell visited Mr. & Mrs. Mike Maddux and family in Andalusia Tuesday evening. Mr. Maddux, former Elba resident, returned Sunday from an Andalusia hospital where he was, critically ill for several weeks. He is thought to be out of danger now. The Elba group attended an adult fellowship and Sunday school conference at the Andalusia Methodist church.

ROWELL HOSPITALIZED

Cler Rowell, World War I vet, is hospitalized at the hospital in Elba. He was injured while serving in the military. He is expected to be discharged in a few days. He is being cared for by his family.

PROF. DIXON-TIGER FAN

A letter from Prof. J. C. Dixon, who is a member of the faculty of George Pepperdine College in Los Angeles, Calif., said he is still interested in the success of the Tigers and hopes they will continue to have a successful season. Prof. Dixon was head of Elba schools for more than 25 years and spent much time and effort in helping to steer the Tigers through numerous ups and downs.

He sends a clipping from his college paper commending the movie, "Jim Thorpe, All-American." He said the boy who is in the picture is a real hero and that he is a full-blooded Indian, just as the picture shows.

ATTEND MEETING

EVEN BETTER SERVICE TO YOU

The number of people holding Emergency Aid Insurance Company policies—burial, life, fire and casualty—is growing by leaps and bounds. People like the friendly and efficient manner in which they are treated by our company. Any time there is an emergency for one of our policy holders, the company comes to his aid. The new funeral home now being completed in Elba will enable us to give more aid and comfort to our friends and neighbors in their hour of greatest need. Modern facilities backed by an efficient staff will enable The Emergency Aid, a home-owned, home-operated company, to give the best of service. No expense has been spared to give Southern Alabama and our policy holders an establishment that is a credit to the community and able to efficiently handle the many details of a satisfactory funeral service. Join our growing family of policy-holders who are taking advantage of being serviced by a home-operated insurance company. Let your friends and neighbors aid you in a time of need.
